

MATE 33RD CONFERENCE

“Gender Issues in Language Teaching “

FROM MONDAY 28 JANUARY 2013 TO THURSDAY 31 JANUARY 2013

This year's conference will focus on gender issues such as sexist language in the language classroom, gender-neutral language, sexism within textbooks, empowering women through ELT/ELL, tales/jokes as a source of gender stereotypes and issues in language education for learners with special needs: Focus on the blind and visually impaired.

The British Council is willing to sponsor up to six Tunisian delegates who should be ELT practitioners in the secondary sector currently working in Tunisia. There is an application form to be completed along with the requirement that candidates produce a 200 word text presenting what they will bring back to Tunisia, through their participation at MATE 33rd Conference in Marrakech.

NB: Priority will be given to teachers in the secondary sector.

Deadline: Tuesday 8th January 2013

Please find application form here

Submit your application to the following email: english4future@tn.britishcouncil.org

For more info please read this document or visit this web page